Event Name

Little Newton's Lunar New Year Mass Greeting

Activity Goal

1. To help children recognize the traditional culture of the Lunar New Year .
2. To enhance language expression skills and interpersonal interaction techniques through collective Lunar New Year greetings.
3. To strengthen children's sense of identity with their ethnic and sense of collective belonging.

Activity Introduction

During the event, the children, dressed in traditional costumes and returned to the campus to give New Year greetings to the principal, teachers, and classmates from other classes. The teachers guided the children in learning traditional gestures such as bowing and clapping their hands, while also teaching them New Year blessings. The school showcased decorations like couplets, lanterns, the "Fu" character, flower arrangements, and full boxes of goodies to celebrate the New Year. Additionally, the school invited parent volunteers to perform lion dancing, allowing the children to appreciate Chinese traditional culture.
